
*Wishing you a
Happy Holiday and a Healthy, Happy and Prosperous 2015!*

Just back from my fifth and best trip to Japan. Have made some wonderful friends and I'm still astonished at the kindness and warmth of the Japanese people. I actually feel like I have several nannies everyday looking out for me. The beauty and culture of the country continually fascinates me. More about Japan at a future meeting.

Hope everyone is ready for a wonderful spring or summer travel odyssey. New York is definitely a go for May, if interested let me know right away. I have some fascinating venues to explore as well as ballet, theater, shopping and even a stop at a spa!

Plans for Venice and Verona, Italy will be finalized by the end of January. More travel news after the holiday. Look forward to seeing everyone and personally wishing you all a truly, marvelous New Year.

Warmest regards,
Lynn

PERSONAL TRAVEL CONSULTATION

Don't forget our private travel consultation for independent travelers are available for a supplementary fee. The consultation is a complete itinerary for a week to 10 days personalized for your interests and budget.